GAME PREVIEW:

The 2018 Benedictine football team looks to continue a run of success under the direction of BC Head Coach Danny Britt. The Cadets have a 65-5 record during the past five seasons, including four region championships and two state championships (2014, 2016). The 2018 season will see the Cadets renewing old rivalries with the jump to Region 3-AAA. The region is made up of seven Savannah schools along with Southeast Bulloch. BC must replace a number of key contributors who graduated, including eight who are now playing at the collegiate level. BC returns seven starters from a defense that allowed 11 points per game last season. The offense returns four starters, including three on the offensive line. BC kicks off its season in the Erk Russell Classic before having back-to-back bye weeks.

Burke County is coming off a 12-1 season in which the Bears advanced to the Class AAAA quarterfinals, where they fell to eventual state runner-up Marist. Burke County Head Coach Eric Parker has taken the Bears to remarkable heights with six region championships during his tenure and a state title in 2011. This, combined with five trips to at least the quarterfinals, has made Burke County one of the premier programs in Georgia over the last decade. Parker is originally from Camilla, Ga., the same hometown as Benedictine's Danny Britt. Parker and Britt also both played at Georgia Southern. Burke County looks to establish the run with the elite playmaking ability of senior Chad Crumbley, an all-region defensive back in 2017. Juanya Dove takes over the offense for the first time at quarterback. The defense will base out of a 3-4 look with an athletic group and aggressive linebackers. The Bears have not lost a season opener since 2012 and look to advance to the state playoffs for a 12th consecutive season.
