GAME PREVIEW:

The Cadets ended the regular season with a perfect record by defeating Jeff Davis in Hazlehurst. After BC took an early lead, Jeff Davis scored to cut it to 10-7. That's when BC used its passing game to secure its third perfect regular season in the past four years. Nick Iannone threw four second-quarter touchdown passes to ensure the victory. Iannone threw for five scores to three different receivers overall. John Wesley Kennedy was on the end of three, while Travis Blackshear and Nick Whitfield each caught one. Jake Karesh was perfect on the night with PATs, while also adding field goals of 27 and 29 yards. BC's defense buckled down after the first score, not allowing the Jackets to threaten the rest of the game. BC enters the playoffs having outscored its opponents 405-81. Since taking over in 2011, BC Head Coach Danny Britt has led the Cadets to a 4-1 record in the first round of the state playoffs. At Savannah State University's T.A. Wright Stadium, BC is 7-1 in postseason play. The winner of Friday night's game will play the KIPP Atlanta vs. Banks County winner in the second round of the playoffs.

After going 0-10 a year ago, first-year head coach Nick Collins has led an impressive turnaround at Glenn Hills. The Spartans secured the No. 4 seed from Region 4-AA with a 10-8 win over Butler last week. This is the Spartans' first postseason appearance since 2008. The Spartans line up primarily in the shotgun with various spread formations. The offense likes to establish the run but has had success with big plays in the passing game. Strong-armed senior quarterback Sean Owsley leads the attack. Defensively, Glenn Hills bases out of a 4-3. Defensive end Jalin Mincey is a great run-stopper but also has the speed to rush the passer. The defense likes to play man-to-man coverage in the secondary.
