GAME PREVIEW:

The playoffs are here and Friday night will be a slugfest as the Cadets play host to state juggernaut Thomasville; one of the most successful high school football programs in the nation. T.A. Wright Stadium has 8,500 seats and we expect them all to be full of BC fans Friday night. This may be our only home playoff game so make plans to arrive early to cheer on the fourth-ranked Cadets.

The Bulldogs' 692 wins make them fifth all-time in Georgia and 58th nationally. They've won 26 region championships, five state championships, and one national title. Their football program boasts winning records over teams such as Warner Robins, Northside WR, Lowndes Co., Camden Co., Colquitt Co. and Fitzgerald. Head coach Leroy Ryals is in his second season at Thomasville. He spent the prior seven seasons as the head coach at Clarke Central in Athens. An experienced coach who once served on Nick Saban's staff at LSU, Ryals has led his teams to the playoffs in each of his nine seasons.

The 2014 version of the Thomasville Bulldogs is tough and battle-tested. They narrowly lost to Valdosta 10-0 and held the Wildcats (9-1) to their lowest point total of the year. Despite handing Region 1 champion Fitzgerald its only loss of the year (22-19), the Bulldogs are the No. 3 seed from the region because of a tie-breaker. Their balanced offense is led by Junior Hayes, a senior QB who has 1,140 yards passing, 11 TDs and only three interceptions. He's also the second-leading rusher (697 yards and 8 TDs) behind senior RB Jaladin Jones, who has gained 1,035 yards and 9 TDs. The Bulldogs have four seniors with double-digit receptions. Their 3-4 defense takes advantage of a core group of very athletic, aggressive linebackers. Safety Jay Bowdry is their leading tackler.
