GAME PREVIEW:

The Cadets opened the Class AA playoffs with a bang as John Wesley Kennedy scored on an 85-yard run on BC's first offensive play against Glenn Hills. It was the beginning of a four-touchdown night from Kennedy, as the Cadets took a 44-0 lead into halftime. Quarterback Nick Iannone threw three TD passes in the first half. All of this came behind a veteran offensive line, including seniors Gage Blackston, Matthew Nyce, Mills Thompson and Logan von Waldner, along with junior Austin Williams. The defense had another good night with the first unit not giving up a score. Chris Harris led the way with eight tackles, while Adam King was had success pressuring the quarterback. BC's defense has given up less than 10 points in all but two games this season.

Banks County enters having advanced due to a forfeit by KIPP-Atlanta. The Leopards were set to host a first-round game a week ago before KIPP forfeited due to an altercation in their regular-season finale. It was the first voluntary forfeit in GHSA playoff history. This will mark the first postseason game for Banks Co. since 2011. In his first season at the helm, Josh Shoemaker guided the Leopards to a 5-1 region record and the second seed in region 8. The balanced Leopards offense is led by quarterback Griffin Goodwin, a senior who has thrown for over 1,000 yards in three straight seasons. This year, he has thrown for over 1,800 yards and 18 TDs. He has a number of playmakers at his disposal, including Bryce Bennett (46 catches, 11 TDs) and running back Clayton Dykhouse (1,026 yards, 11 TDs). Defensively, Banks Co. will base out of a 3-4 and gets great play from an aggressive linebacker unit. Demetrius Walker leads the team in tackles while middle linebacker Zach Lehotsky anchors the defense. CJ Thomas has been a ballhawk with eight interceptions.
