GAME PREVIEW:

Top-ranked BC, en route to a 70-21 victory, led 21-0 in the second quarter against the 10th-ranked Jefferson County Warriors. Rico Powers scored three times in the first half. The Warriors scored three second-quarter touchdowns. The Cadets held a 35-21 halftime lead. On the first play from scrimmage of the second half, Terrick Smalls outran the defense for an 80-yard TD. On the next two defensive series, the Cadets put the game away with two interceptions returned for TDs: a 30-yard return by Andrew Warren followed by a 45-yarder from Dennis Bailey. John Dodd made 10 tackles and BC's defense did not allow a point in the second half. Travis Blackshear had three TDs; Smalls had two. Jake Karesh was 10-of-10 on extra points.

Second-ranked Hapeville Charter enters the quarterfinals for a second consecutive season. The Hornets have been No. 2 in the state the entire year. Their only setback was a 21-20 loss to Thompson High School, the top-ranked team in Alabama. The Hornets bring the most talented roster the Cadets have faced in a long time. The defense is truly elite. Hapeville has recorded five shutouts and has not allowed more than 10 points in a single game since August. Kingsley Enagbare, a South Carolina commit, headlines the unit as the Region 6-AA Defensive Player of the Year. Defensive back Christopher Smith is committed to Georgia. Defensive lineman Caleb Kelly holds offers from Ole Miss, Stanford, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. Junior defensive back Malik Fleming has an offer from Louisville. Quarterback Hajj-Malik Williams has nearly 2,000 yards passing and 17 TDs. Former BC Cadet Tyleek Collins is second on the team in all-purpose yards. Harper Atkins leads the team in rushing, and Kivante' Johnson is the leading receiver and has accounted for the most all-purpose yards.
