GAME PREVIEW:

Tuesday night's game was supposed to be played last Friday but was postponed because of Hurricane Florence. BC is coming off a 38-7 loss to Class AAAA No. 1 Blessed Trinity. Ohio State commit Steele Chambers ran for four touchdowns in a game that was delayed for more than an hour in the second quarter due to lightning. Titans quarterback Jake Smith was 9-for-10 passing to complement Chambers. BC's touchdown came on a 1-yard pass from Carter Geriner to Gavin Stewart in the fourth quarter. The loss snapped a 34-game regular-season winning streak for the Cadets dating to October 2014. Despite the loss, BC remains in the top 10 of the Class AAA state rankings for a 74th straight week. That's good for the third-longest streak in the state, regardless of classification. The Cadets now prepare for region play and renewing rivalries with the Savannah-area schools. Every other team in 3-AAA has played one region game, while the Cadets begin this week by taking on the Groves Rebels. Groves and BC have squared off 55 times, the third-most common opponent for the Cadets trailing only Savannah High and Glynn Academy.

Mike Martin is in his fifth season guiding Groves after spending five seasons at the helm of Windsor Forest in the mid-to-late 2000s. Groves looks for its first win of the season. The Rebels have tested themselves early with non-region games against AAAAAA opponents Effingham County and state-ranked Glynn Academy. Against Johnson, Groves senior quarterback Damian Ramos connected with Kahlil Lonnon for a 67-yard touchdown pass, while senior De'shaune Moorer returned a kickoff 74 yards for a touchdown. Moorer is a dynamic playmaker on offense, defense and special teams. Senior defensive back Kesean James has had a remarkable start to the season, leading the Rebels with 51 tackles.
