GAME PREVIEW:

The Cadets return home for the final non-region contest of the regular season. Last week, the Cadets got off to a sluggish start but responded well with a huge second half on the way to a 35-0 victory at Bryan County. The BC defense had a number of big stops in its own territory and was able to force four Redskins turnovers. Tru'self Cooper, Chris Harris and Phillip Moore all recorded double-digit tackles, while Cooper recovered two fumbles and Moore recovered another. Senior Dasch Bergmann had an interception to go along with seven tackles. John Wesley Kennedy had another big night, scoring four times in the second half. He rushed for two scores, received one and returned a punt for the second straight game. Nick Iannone threw for a career-high 194 yards with a touchdown, his fifth of the year. Jacob Collins got the Cadets on the scoreboard with a first-half touchdown, his fourth of the season.

Wayne County travels to take on the Cadets for the first time in Savannah since 2002, when BC came away with a 21-17 win at Memorial Stadium. The Yellow Jackets, under the direction of Jody Grooms, have experienced a great deal of recent success. In 2012 and 2014, Wayne County advanced to the second round of the GHSA Class 4A state playoffs, and in '13 the Jackets lost in the state semifinals, 25-21, to eventual state champion Griffin. Wayne County is coming off a region loss to Liberty Co. but does have wins over Appling Co. and Statesboro. The Jackets defense, led by NCAA Divison I recruit Jeremiah Littles, has given up 14 points or less in four different games. The offense will primarily work out of the shotgun and likes to keep an equal balance of run and pass. There is a lot of youth at the skill positions, while the offensive line is more experienced.
