GAME PREVIEW:

BC will renew an old rivalry as it travels to Jesup for the first time since 2003. It is Homecoming for Wayne Co. so BC can expect lots of fans and a playoff atmosphere. The Yellow Jackets may be the best team BC has played so far this season. Don't let their 2-4 record fool you, as they have played a brutal schedule. They were 11-3 last season and lost in the semifinals to Griffin, the eventual state champion. Earlier this season, state powerhouse Camden Co. only beat them 24-7. Last Friday night, Wayne Co. shut out Liberty Co. 29-0.

BC is coming off a blowout win over Bryan Co., where the Cadets led 42-0 at halftime and many younger players saw action. The offense is ranked second in the state, averaging 42 points per game. Ten different running backs racked up 264 yards rushing. Stevie Powers completed eight passes for 97 yards and BC didn't attempt a pass in the second half. On special teams, Brandon DeLoach was 8-of-8 on extra points and John Kennedy had an 81-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. The Cadets' defense is ranked fifth in the state, only allowing an average of six points the last three games. Twenty-six different Cadets registered a tackle, with defensive lineman DJ Owens making four tackles for loss. Drew Werntz, Jack Muller and Philip Moore had interceptions and Tru'self Cooper recovered a fumble.

Wayne Co. has an extremely balanced offense with many weapons. Senior QB Nick Belz (6-4) runs their spread offense to perfection. The offensive line is the biggest BC has faced this year with starters averaging over 260 pounds. The Yellow Jackets use a 4-3 defense. MLB Jeremiah Little (6-2, 225) is all over the field. Keep an eye on freshman NG Nyzia Buggs, who is athletic and almost 300 pounds.
