GAME PREVIEW:

The Cadets, coming off a bye week, will face Toombs County on Thursday night in one of the top matchups in Georgia. Both teams enter the game 6-0 overall. This is the latest point in the regular season that an undefeated Cadet squad has faced another unbeaten team since October 1997, when BC defeated Bradwell at Memorial Stadium. BC is making its second straight trip to The Pit after moving last year's game to Lyons due to Hurricane Matthew. The Cadets will look to continue using a balanced offensive attack. Quarterback Nick Iannone has thrown for 12 touchdowns and 950 yards in his third year as a starter. The combination of Travis Blackshear, Rico Powers and Terrick Smalls have combined for over 1,350 yards on the ground with 13 TDs behind an improving offensive line. BC's defense, which allows 10 points per game, will face one of its stiffest challenges of the season.

Toombs County is coming off a 42-7 victory at Bryan Co. The Bulldogs have been impressive in 2017 and are looking for their first region title since 2000. Toombs is led by an elite group of playmakers. Keshawn Morgan gets a bulk of the carries and is one of the best backs in south Georgia. The senior holds offers from South Florida, UAB and Georgia State. He has already rushed for 800 yards and nine touchdowns this season. Ervin Mincey is a difference-maker on both sides of the ball. The 6-foot-1, 230-pound senior lines up at tight end on offense and is an elite defensive end. Dalton McBride guides the Toombs offense and plays defensive back. McBride will start for a second straight year against the Cadets and is a dual threat (258 yds. rushing, 256 yds. passing). He had his best passing performance last year against BC. The Bulldog defense has given up more than 14 points in just one game this year.
