GAME PREVIEW:

The Cadets hit the road for a region 2-AA showdown with the Vidalia Indians. Just like last season, when Vidalia won 35-28 in Savannah, first place in the region is on the line. The Cadets will travel for just the second time in 2015 as they come off a 48-0 homecoming win over Jeff Davis. BC got a huge night out of sophomore Tyleek Collins, who rushed for a career-high 210 yards and four total touchdowns. Sophomore Nick Iannone was 6-for-7 passing for 140 yards with touchdown strikes to Collins and junior Nick Whitefield. Running backs John Wesley Kennedy and Travis Blackshear added scores for BC, too. Twenty nine different Cadets recorded at least one tackle as Chris Harris led the way with 13. The defense produced its second shutout in its last three games. BC's defense has forced 16 turnovers this season.

Vidalia enters in position to defend its region 2-AA crown. Last year, the Indians went a perfect 10-0 in the regular season and advanced to the state quarterfinals, where they lost at GAC. A number of key playmakers graduated and junior preseason all-state selection Nathan McBride has not played due to a preseason injury. However, the Indians have a tremendous amount of talent on both sides of the ball. Fullback Jadarius Mclendon will get a bulk of the carries for the Indians. A very good runner, Mclendon will also play a big role for the Vidalia defense. Lakia Henry and Keshawn Williams are also two-way standouts at running back and linebacker. The offensive line is led by Samuel Collins and center Hayden Garvin, who were all-region selections in 2014. Through six games, the Indians' defense is giving up an average of fewer than 11 points per game, including three shutouts. Vidalia is 37-6 over the past three-and-a-half seasons and has not lost a home game since November of 2012.
