GAME PREVIEW:

BC will host the biggest Class AA game in the state Friday night as the No. 2 Vidalia Indians travel to Savannah to take on our No. 3 BC Cadets. The game will feature two of the state's best offenses and defenses. This game has playoff implications as both teams are tied for first place and undefeated in Region 2-AA. The Indians are a powerhouse and have only lost one region game in the last three years - last year's loss to BC. Each team has only given up six points this season to Class AA opponents. Expect a college atmosphere and a huge crowd to arrive early at T.A. Wright Stadium. We need our BC fans to be ALL IN, so wear your BC maroon and get ready to FIRE UP OUR CADETS.

The Cadets improved to 3-0 in the region with a big 42-0 road win at Jeff Davis, which was previously undefeated in the region and was only giving up eight points per game. Stevie Powers threw for 341 yards and four touchdowns. Brad Stewart hauled in more than 200 yards receiving (for the second game in a row.) The defensive unit played tough and gave up zero points.

Vidalia (6-0) has been ripping through its competition all season. This is a complete team with athleticism, speed, size and strength. The Indians have the third-ranked offense (39.5 points per game) and the top-ranked defense (3.8 ppg.) in Class AA. They've outscored their last four opponents 165-0. They are led by senior QB/DB Jordan Black, who is exceptionally fast and athletic. The offense averages 272 yards rushing and 60 yards passing per game. Black leads the Indians' high-octane attack with 46 carries for 483 yards (10.5 avg.) and 10 TDs. Super sophomore Nate McBride (6-foot-2, 220 pounds) plays RB/LB and already has several NCAA Division I scholarship offers.
