GAME PREVIEW:

It's Homecoming for the Cadets and BC will rekindle one of the state's oldest rivalries. Groves and BC have played each other 62 times since their first meeting in 1948. Make plans to arrive early as the parking lot was full by 6 p.m. last Friday. Please note: per SSU, the tailgating parking lot will not open until 4 p.m. The BC Athletic Association and BC Alumni Association cordially invite you and your families to come and enjoy Droppin Dimes play 5-7 p.m. in the back of the SSU parking lot. Droppin Dimes is a band consisting of BC Alumni Class of '84, which is celebrating its 30th reunion.

Last Friday, the Cadets lost a close battle of heavyweights in a game that can only be described as a dogfight. Many fans across the state said that it was the best high school football game they'd seen in years. BC is now in second place in the region and is still ranked No. 4 in the state. With three very important region games left, BC is focused and determined to secure its spot for a playoff run. The goal is to win these region games and host a first-round playoff game Nov. 14.

After winning one game in the last two seasons, Groves is 5-2 under new head coach Mike Martin. Martin (34-27 overall) made a name for himself at Windsor Forest, where he coached for five seasons and led them to the playoffs in all but his first season. Groves has had no trouble putting points on the board as they average more than 33 ppg. Senior QB Shabari Davis is a quick athlete with a strong arm. They'll use the spread and pro formations to get the ball in the hands of senior workhorse Devin Nixon, who averages more than 150 total yards per game. LBs Camiron Hickson (61 tackles) and Nixon (59) lead the defense. Tackle Mikael Mays (6-2, 260) is an outstanding run-stopper.
