GAME PREVIEW:

BC is celebrating Homecoming Week and preparing for an unbeaten Southeast Bulloch. The Cadets used an impressive second-half performance against Islands last Saturday to set up a first-place matchup between the lone remaining undefeated teams in Region 3-AAA. BC got a huge performance from Jakeen Harris against Islands as he tallied three touchdowns and was a force on defense. BC's defense was stout the entire game, highlighted by five interceptions: one each from Trent Broadnax, Quan Martin and RaQuez Martin, and two from Harris. Quan Martin returned his interception for a touchdown. QB Carter Geriner was 15-of-20 passing behind great protection from his offensive line. Broadnax had two receptions for 55 yards and a score, while Rico Powers had seven catches for 132 yards. Gavin Stewart had a career-high four catches to go with a big day kicking. Stewart was 6-for-6 on PATs, had a 28-yard field goal, and had six touchbacks. Grayson White got the scoring started in the third quarter with a 7-yard touchdown run. Friday night's contest with Southeast Bulloch will be the third between the schools but the first as a region tilt.

Southeast Bulloch enters Friday night's showdown 7-0 and is off to its best start since 1993, when the Yellowjackets were under the direction of former Benedictine Head Coach Tom Brackett. The Jackets are looking for their first region title since 1994. Barrett Davis is in his first year as head coach after stints at Lakeside and Burke County as an assistant. Senior QB Blaize Minick orchestrates a run-oriented offense. The Jackets have used a methodical ground game to dominate time of possession and wear down opponents. Jontrell Wells and Tyler Bailey have game-changing ability in the backfield. Defensively, the Jackets have been outstanding.
