Benedictine's Kevin Prisant appointed football assistant head coach

SAVANNAH, Ga. – Benedictine Military School's Kevin Prisant has been appointed football assistant head coach, Cadets head coach Danny Britt announced today.

"Coach Prisant was the right choice to promote to assistant head coach because he has been a head coach and he understands what it takes," Britt said. "There are many things that he can bring to the table to assist in running the Benedictine program."

Prisant joined Britt's staff in 2015 and coached the Cadets' running backs. He guided the team's weak ends in both 2016 and 2017, and also served as co-defensive coordinator in 2017. Prisant helped BC win the GHSA Class AA state championship in 2016 and finish with a 15-0 record.

"In addition to being assistant head coach, he'll also continue working with the defense and being a co-defensive coordinator," Britt said of Prisant, who earned a bachelor's degree in education at Georgia Southern University and a master's degree in education at the University of North Carolina.

Prisant came to Benedictine from Terrell Academy, where he was the wide receivers coach in 2014.

From 2011-13, Prisant was the head coach at The Heritage School. He guided the football team to a 24-10 overall record, as well as a 2012 region championship and a 2012 GISA AAA state runner-up finish.

In 2009-10, Prisant was athletics director and offensive coordinator at Randolph Southern.

Prisant served as Bulloch Academy's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2007 and 2008, and he coached Bulloch Academy's wide receivers and linebackers from 2004-06.
